5 March 2024

FLEXIVOAM

Background

- FlexiRoam is an Australian ASX listed company (ASX:FRX) with its Operations based in Malaysia.
- It has been competing in the provision of roaming data SIMs for travellers, since 2011.
- It is experiencing major increases in the demand for global data connectivity services for both leisure and business travellers.
- FlexiRoam has successfully established a footprint in the market “providing global connectivity via data plans to eSIM enabled devices”.
- Recent results evidenced annualized revenues of $A9M and around 40K active customers*.
- The previous strategy was broad with its concurrent focus on multiple market segments, a complex value proposition and a sub optimal operating model for a digital growth led Company.
- In the context of the substantial market opportunity – 2023 Addressable Market of $US550M with est. 38% CAGR** (within the $US1.65bn eSIM travel market)*** then the Board has ratified an updated Corporate Strategy outlining key initiatives and a clear direction for FlexiRoam’s growth ambitions.

Half Year FY24 Financial Commentary

- Revenue benefited from the rebound in traveller numbers compared to prior period which was at the tail end of the COVID downturn.
- eSIM exclusive handsets such as the latest iPhone in the US driving increasing awareness amongst consumers providing underlying growth in the addressable target market.
- Corporate Revenue continues to improve with the expansion of existing relationships and further take-up by the underlying users.
- Gross profit improvements are the result of improved data costs in our telecom supply arrangements.
- Operational expenses have grown much less than the higher revenue although expensed components from the modernization of the technology stack did impact the overall result.
- Normalised EBITDA* for the period was $0.45m with Normalised Net Profit* at -$0.6m.

\ Earnings & Net profit normalised for one-time impacts such as prior period adjustments for telecom supply*

FlexiRoam's Strategic Decisions:

- FlexiRoam has considered the eSIM market and determined that to win, scale rapidly and benefit from the positive tailwinds, it must remain laser focused on the traveller market.
- By consequence, the current technology investment related to the IoT business market will be API focused, and other than to satisfy this deployment, then currently budgeted funds must be re-directed to drive growth in the core travel market.
- Focusing on the Consumer Travel market, FlexiRoam will look to service clients internationally, offering an extensive range of Global, Regional and Local Plans.
- The core go-to-market strategy to be Digital Media supported by leading B2B2C channel partners, underpinned and informed by a solid brand platform.

FlexiRoam's Core Goal:

Achieve rapid, (profitable) growth with CAGR growth of at least two times the market growth over each of next 5 years and attain over 20% of the 'Challenger' eSIM traveller market.

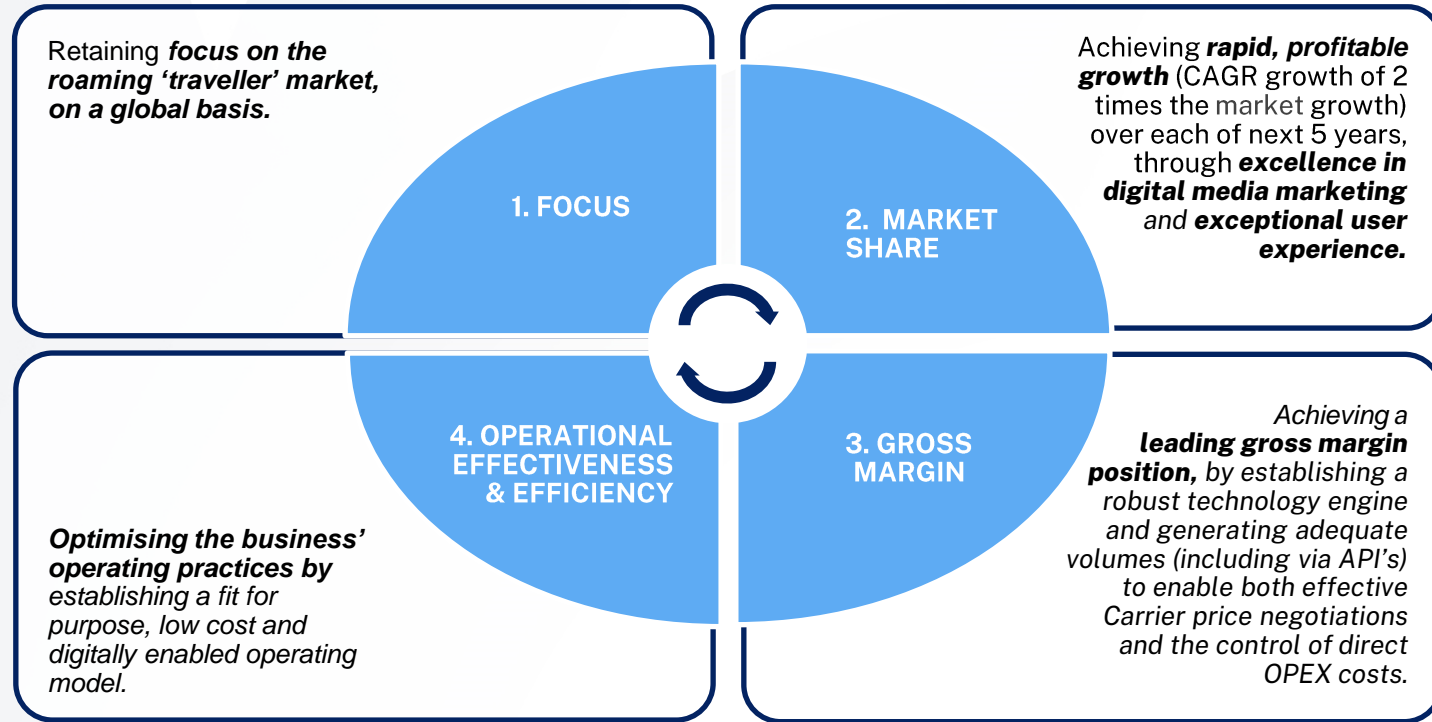

Achieved through:

- Growing revenues and profitable market share in the roaming eSIM travel market (the business focus).
- Excellence across Brand, Marketing (esp. digital) and Customer Experience (customer focus).
- Deploy technology across our business than drives us to a fully digital experience – Embrace the AI world.
- Strong relationships with travel sector Channel Partners as they embrace eSIM's in their own customer journey.
- Merger and Acquisition strategy to complement & add incremental growth to hit ambitious growth objectives.
- The business focus is summarized in the four Strategic Themes overleaf.

The Strategic Themes To Deliver On Our Goal:

Relationship and Competency Initiatives:

Summary: Opportunity Realisation - The Investment Thesis

To fully exploit the opportunity within our (addressable) market of US$550M, with forecast growth of 38% per annum, FlexiRoam has set itself a CAGR target of two times the market growth rate over the next 5 years to deliver a 20% share of the 'Challenger' market segment. To be successful the business will rapidly and decisively implement several key initiatives:-

- Rationalize the business focus, prioritizing investment on the traveller market. Service international markets with a refined, competitive and clear service offering.
- Implement a robust go-to-market strategy defined by a challenger brand identity & positioning and being delivered across a Digital Media program characterized by quantifiable and trackable metrics/ pipeline into sales.
- Operate with a contemporary organizational structure enabling clarity around accountability, cooperation and communication with defined and transparent People and Culture KPI's.
- Live by a business approach defined by 'Customer at the Heart' decision making.
- Achieve operational excellence across reporting, data integrity and information sharing – Data Warehouse.
- Re-set and deploy all foundational technology platforms by 30 June 2024.
- Develop integrated relationships with regionally strong Carriers to enhance both our commercial position & the customer experience we deliver.
- 2H 2024 focus on AI and SIM Management SaaS deployments.
- Apply a strategic approach to direct Sales and the growth of our Channel & Solutions partners.
- Invest in an end-to-end digital acquisition & retention strategy as a foundation to support rapid growth.
